RURAL MINISTRY CONFERENCE 2019

The Rural Ministry Conference is a new initiative of the Anglican Dioceses in Victoria to assist those who have a role in rural ministry in planning, enabling and doing, both clergy and laity.

PROGRAM

The program will involve a high level of participation for all attending and over the three days there will be sessions covering all aspects of rural ministry. Some sessions will be workshops and there will be addresses by the Primate, the Most Rev'd Dr Philip Freier and the Provincial Officer for Victoria, Bishop Andrew Curnow AM. The conference will be facilitated by the Right Rev'd Dr Matt Brain, Bishop of Bendigo.

COST

Rutherford Park Country Retreat is situated in the beautiful Spa Country of Central Victoria with breathtaking views and excellent cuisine. Vacancies are limited and representation from every diocese in Australia is encouraged.

Single $750.00

Share $650.00
